

Democracy in Ancient Greece

Name: _____

Handout 1.1a Step by Step Checklist

Step 1: Choose an Issue

- Read the Issue Intros and write your opinions
- Choose which Issue you would like to research
- Learn about dictatorship and democracy
- Learn how geography affected the development of Greek society

Step 4: Write a Speech

- Sort your research notes and form an opinion on your issue
- Complete the graphic organizer for your speech
- Write the first draft of your speech
- Write the final draft of your speech

Step 2: Explore Perspectives

- Read the Issue Brief
- Define the issue
- Take notes on Pericles and Agi's perspectives
- Take notes on Helena and Spiro's perspectives
- Take notes on Hector and Odys' perspectives

Step 5: Create a Presentation

- Read the True story of Demosthenes and learn about the importance of public speaking
- Get together with a group and write a presentation
- Write your speaking notes on an index card
- Storyboard your slide and create your multimedia presentation
- Find images for your slides and cite your sources

Step 3: Conduct Research

- Give an informal presentation with your group about the issue you are researching
- Use multiple search engines to find good resources about ancient Greece on the Internet
- Post a good website about ancient Greece on the student Discussion Board

Step 6: Present and Vote

- Practice public speaking with your group
- Present your views with your group and vote on the issues
- Learn about the consequences of voting in a democracy
- Take the Student Survey